Mimoriadne kreatívne štúdio nesúce názov PLUSMINUSARCHITECTS, je našim pravidelným čitateľom už určite veľmi dobre známe vďaka projektom naprieč Bratislavou a dnes nazrieme priamo do "kuchyne" tímu okolo Ing. arch. Maroša Fečíka. Ateliér ukrytý v budove z roku 1928 navrhnutej známym architektom menom Otakar Nekvasil, je presne taký, aký som si predstavoval a poteší všetkých tých, ktorí majú radi kombinácie starého s novým, či mierne hipsterský nádych.

Klasické drevené podlahy, stropy a okná príjemne dopĺňajú tehlové steny v bielom odtieni, pričom kontrast nového vytvárajú moderné stoličky a stoly, na ktorých vznikajú ďalšie projekty z dielne +-Architects. Na ploche o výmere činiacej krásnych 82 metrov štvorcových (rozloha rovnajúca sa 4 izbovému bytu), všetko spolu hrá na výbornú a mnohým nebude prekážať dokonca ani nábytok/skrinky z OSB dosiek, skôr naopak. Svoju kreativitu si môžu chalani pilovať okrem počítačov a tabletov aj na klasickej školskej tabuli umiestnenej za "gaučom" v oddychovej časti ateliéru a tak z času na čas nechýbajú ani úsmevné heslá, ako napríklad: "Tvrdo pracuj a buď milý k ľuďom". Viac vám už ale určite povedia samotné zábery a taktiež sprievodné video, ktoré sú prácou jedného z najlepších architektonických štúdií na Slovensku. Mimochodom, rozpočet na kompletnú prestavbu a zariadenie činil 7.5
